-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

1. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.
2. Claims 1-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over any one of Fischer et al US 3108824, Nelson et al US 3895220, or Kachi et al US 4658125 in view of Deetz US 5843329 for the reasons of record.
3. Applicant's arguments filed 10 January 2005 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicants appear to be relying upon part of the newly amended claim language: i.e. "personalized magnetic communication".

However the sole patentable distinction between the claimed invention and the prior art cannot reside in the difference in the printed matter. In re Sterling, 21 CCPA 1134, 70 F.2d 910, 21 USPQ 519, 521. The opinion of 21 USPQ at 521 states: "The general physical structure of appellant is admittedly old and such modifications in the adjustment of printed matter thereto as he discloses are mere obvious arrangements of the printing. Patentable novelty cannot be principally predicated on mere printed matter and arrangements thereof". "Therefore, if an arrangement of printed matter does not constitute patentable novelty, it would seem logical that the substance or language of what is printed may not do so."

It is a rule of universal application that an object is not patentable where its novelty consists merely of an arrangement of printed matter Conover v. Coe, 69 App. D.C., 144, 99 F.2d 377, 38 USPQ 309.

Note that each of the primary reference discloses the limitations of claims 1-3 - no hindsight involved. The references essentially anticipate the claimed invention except for the nature of the printed matter that, as shown above, cannot be the patentable feature.

4. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.

5. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Stevan A. Resan whose telephone number is 571-272-1513. The examiner can normally be reached on Tues-Thurs from 7:30 AM to 6:00 PM.
